Weekly Intention

For the grace this week to live to the full all that God has entrusted to us.

From Fr. Fred:

I Can't Remember

Just a line to say I'm living, that I'm not among the dead.
Though I'm getting more forgetful and mixed up in the head.
I got used to my arthritis,
to my dentures I'm resigned, I can manage my bifocals but God I miss my mind.

For sometimes I can't remember when I stand at the foot of the stairs, If I must go up for something, or have I just come down from there.
And before the 'fridge so often,
my poor mind is filled with doubt, Have I just put food away, or have I come to take some out.

And there is time when it is dark with my nightcap on my head, I don't know if I'm retiring, or just getting out of bed.
So, if it's my turn to write you,
there's no need for getting sore,
I may think that I have written,
and don't want to be a bore.

So, remember that I love you, and wish that you were near But now it's nearly mail time so I must say goodbye dear, There I stand beside the mail box, with a face so very red.
Instead of mailing you my letter,
I had opened it instead.

Quote of the Week:

“If we cannot restrain our tongue or control our bodies and employ them in good works, can we complain that God does not call us to higher things?”

(St. John of Avila)

Just for Fun:

(This is the 100th joke in our bulletin)

A dog looks at the person in the house and thinks: “This person protects me,
feeds me, shelters me and takes care of all my needs. This person must be God.”

A cat looks at the person in the house
and thinks: This person protects me,
feeds me, shelters me and takes care of all my needs. I must be God.”

Prayer for the Selection of a New Bishop for Vermont

O God, Eternal Shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love, a pastor for the Diocese of Burlington who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen.
