

From Fr. Fred:

In his beautiful book, "I Shall Not Want," Robert Ketchum tells of a Sunday School teacher who asked her group of children if anyone could quote the entire 23rd Psalm. A golden-haired, four-and-a-half-year old girl was among those who raised their hands. A bit skeptical, the teacher asked if she could really quote the entire psalm. The little girl came to the front of the room, faced the class, made a perky little bow, and said, "The Lord is my shepherd, that's all I want."

She bowed again and went and sat down.

That may well be the greatest interpretation of the 23rd Psalm ever heard.

Quote of the week:

"You cannot better appreciate your worth than by looking into the mirror of the cross of Christ. There you will learn how you are to deflate your pride, how you are to pray to your Father for those who persecute you, and to commend your spirit into God's hands."

~St. Anthony of Padua

Just for Fun: A parishioner shared this with me and I got a good laugh out of it. I hope you enjoy it too.
