Weekly Intention

For the grace this week to break down walls that divide us one from another.

Fr. Simon's Tuition Appeal Goal: $15,000
Tuition Appeal Collection to date: $14,614
Tuition Appeal Collection to go: $ 386

From Fr. Fred:

A dog died and appeared before the pearly gates. St. Peter said: "Hello. Welcome to heaven. Come on in." The dog replied: "Would you mind if I waited here just outside the gates, and maybe chewed on a celestial bone, while I wait for my master to come?" St. Peter said: "I guess that that would be alright. But it could be a very long time before your master comes. You're welcome to come in now if you want." The dog replied: "Thank you. But I think I would rather wait out here. It just wouldn't be heaven without my master."

Quote of the week:

"While you are proclaiming peace with your lips, be careful to have it even more fully in your heart."

~St. Francis of Assisi

Just for Fun:

One summer day the parish secretary came running to the pastor and said: "Father, there's a huge crowd of people coming down the street and the one leading them is Jesus! It looks like he is coming here! What shall I do?" The pastor replied, "Look busy!"
