

The NEWS FROM Inland See

October 15-21, 2016

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

In memory of Bishop Kenneth A. Angell

The Most Reverend Kenneth A. Angell, the eighth Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Burlington, age 86, died on October 4, 2016. He served as Bishop of Burlington from 1992 to 2005, with the episcopal motto, "Serve the Lord with gladness."

A good-humored man of faith with a heart directed towards the dignity of all humanity, Bishop Angell pledged cooperation and support within the ecumenical and interfaith communities of Vermont as he sought to work with them to transform society to reflect the values they shared and proclaimed.

During his tenure as Bishop, he established a diocesan Bishop's Commission on Women; the Office of Safe Environments; a House of Discernment for vocations to the priesthood; and Ministry Training program for those discerning calls to leadership ministries.

"I join with the people of the Diocese of Burlington in offering my prayers that Bishop Kenneth Angell may know eternal happiness. May he rest in peace," said Bishop Christopher Coyne.

For more information about the life of Bishop Angell please visit vermontcatholic.org/vcm.

Look for a commemorative Vermont Catholic publication dedicated to Bishop Angell's life and legacy on the first weekend of November.

"An Inland See" (Howard Coffin (L. Brown and Sons Printing Inc.: Barre, Vermont, 2001)) tells a brief history of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Burlington from its birth until the new millennium (2000). Then Bishop Kenneth A. Angell initiated the project, declaring that "it is the duty of Catholics who live today to record, preserve and pass on our story to those yet to come." In his introduction to the completed book, he encourages readers to "now do likewise, adding our own moments in history and passing them along." That is the hope for this new, diocesan bulletin, "News from The Inland See" — to add our own moments to the history of the Catholic Church in Vermont. Each week, you will find information about upcoming events and opportunities in this one-page bulletin insert. Consider attending, volunteering at, or praying for the various happenings of our diocese and be a part of the moments that contribute to the Catholic Church in Vermont today.

Domestic Violence Awareness Workshop

In Observance of Domestic Violence Awareness Month the Diocese of Burlington is presenting a free workshop aiding in developing tools to reach out and help victims of domestic violence. This workshop is open to all Priests, Parish Administrators, Parish Staff, DRE's, Youth Ministers, Principals, Teachers and Lay People.

Domestic abuse and violence refers to a pattern of violent and coercive behavior exercised by one adult in an intimate relationship over another. It is not a private matter. Domestic Violence...is defined by the Centers for Disease Control as a serious, preventable public health problem that affects millions of Americans.

This FREE Diocesan Workshop on "Responding to Domestic Violence" will take place on October 20th from 10:30am-2:00pm at Holy Family Parish Center in Essex Junction.

Featured speakers will include: Dr. Sharon O'Brien from the Catholic University of America and the Director of Catholics for Family Peace and Tom Mott, Director of Counseling Services at Vermont Catholic Charities, along with numerous others.

To learn more information or to RSVP go to vermontcatholic.org/domesticviolence or contact the Diocese at 802-846-5813, plawson@vermontcatholic.org
